ATTITUDES in ACTION

A Half-Day Workshop
Featuring Core Trainings™ Workshop Presenter:
Deb Hult

Friday, October 18, 2013 at the MSSAA Office, Franklin MA

It may seem as if skills and experience are the most important characteristics of an employee, however, attitude plays just as big a role. Your attitude is a form of expression of yourself. You can choose to be happy, positive and optimistic OR you can choose to be pessimistic and critical with a negative outlook on your workday.

How many times have you heard the directive: “Have a good positive attitude” or “Have positive thinking”? It’s not an easy task! At work your attitude reflects what you do, how you do it, how you say things and how you come across to others.

This workshop will take you on an adventure in exploring your attitudes towards yourself and others and will enhance your mindset with attitude awareness. The results will support your productivity as an employee and will assist you in being a better spouse, parent, and friend...because attitude is contagious!

Deb Hult of Core Trainings™ will take you through a workshop that will introduce you to attitude awareness and the effectiveness it can have on your thoughts, actions and relationships with others. In her work over the years, Debra has come to recognize the need for support systems that will help schools experience a sense of community and connection that has become fragmented with the many changes and demands placed on schools today.
