An MSAA Professional Development workshop for: Administrators, K-8 teachers, literacy specialists

Everybody Reading, Everyday: Creating a School-wide Culture of Literacy

Feature Scholastic Presenter:
Liz Garden, Principal, Dr. Leroy E Mayo Elementary School

Tuesday, April 14, 2020
at the MSAA Office, Franklin, MA

| Sign-In/Registration: 8:00am–8:30am | PD Hours: 6 |
| Workshop: 8:30am–3:00pm | Content Area: English Language Arts/Literacy |
| Fees: Member $215/Non-Member $285 | MSAA Contact: pd@msaa.net |

In this workshop, participants will learn how to create a school-wide culture of literacy. In order to get more kids reading and talking about books, you need to develop ways to get more adults reading and talking about books. Participants will learn about different ways to engage the whole school community in literacy activities. Participants will also learn creative ways to fund book purchases for classroom libraries and school libraries. Participants will learn about and practice the simple act of booktalking as a reading motivator for all. Thanks to Scholastic's sponsorship of this workshop, participants will receive free books to bring back to their schools.

Liz Garden, Principal, Dr. Leroy E Mayo Elementary School is the principal of the Dr Leroy E. Mayo Elementary School in Holden, MA. She has been an administrator for 12 years and taught at various levels for 11 years. Liz has presented about her love of reading at the MRA conference, Literacy for All Conference, NAESP Conference, and the MSAA Summer Institute. Liz serves on Scholastic's Principal Advisory Board.